

The Piedmont Group of the Sierra Club believes that new information requires the Charlottesville/Albemarle Community to take a fresh look at our water needs for the decades ahead. Our community should consider a new water plan with different priorities that draws on the resources of our local watersheds. This plan should emphasize the following:

- Water conservation
- Preservation of ecosystems and other natural resources
- The potential for capacity restorative dredging of the Rivanna Reservoir